

SERVICE ANIMALS

The District allows an individual with a disability to use a service animal in District facilities and on District campuses where members of the public, invitees, clients, customers, patrons, or participants in services, programs, or activities, as relevant, are allowed to go in compliance with state and federal law.

The District allows an individual with a disability to use a miniature horse as a service animal in District facilities and on District campuses if the miniature horse has been individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of the individual with a disability and the District has determined, based on the assessment factors provided in this regulation, that a reasonable accommodation can be made.

California State Law makes falsely claiming an animal to be a service animal a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in a county jail for up to six (6) months or a fine up to $1,000 or both.
